

T. Eric Blocher, CPA, ASA, CVA Principal

Eric Blocher is a Principal with McKonly & Asbury with over 26 years of public accounting experience. He has oversight responsibilities for audits, reviews, and compilations for a wide range of service providers.

As the leader of our valuation team, Eric has over 19 years of business valuation consulting experience. He has been instrumental in developing a successful valuation service providing valuation and litigation support services. He has valued more than 150 closely held businesses in various industries including professional services, real estate, manufacturing, retail, food services, automotive dealerships, and others. Eric has also developed focused industry knowledge providing business valuation services for Employee Stock Ownership Plans (ESOPs) and family limited partnerships.

Education

- B.B.A. - Accounting, James Madison University
- Certified Public Accountant
- Accredited Senior Appraiser
- Certified Valuation Analyst

Professional & Community Involvement

- Member of the American and Pennsylvania Institutes of Certified Public Accountants
- Member of the PICPA's Statewide Business Valuation Committee
- Officer with the Pennsylvania East Chapter of the National Association of Certified Valuators and Analysts
- Treasurer of the Eagle Foundation and Board Member of the Estate Planning Council for Central Pennsylvania

Awards & Recognitions

- Honored by the National Association of Certified Valuators and Analysts and published in the Sample Reports Library, a training and research resource for CVAs across the country
- Qualified multiple times as an expert witness in the field of Business Valuations

To contact Eric Blocher:

Email: eblocher@macpas.com
Phone: 717.972.5730
Fax: 717.972.7217