

Mark R. Heath, CPA

Partner

Mark Heath is a Partner with McKonly & Asbury. Serving as leader of the Tax Department, he brings a wealth of experience in Federal, State, and International Income and Franchise Tax issues for both Publicly and Privately Held Corporations, as well as Partnerships and LLCs.

Mark began his career working in Lancaster and Harrisburg for an international accounting firm, rising to the level of manager. In this role, he served many of the region's largest companies with income tax compliance and consulting services ranging from specialized income tax deduction and credit projects to SEC and GAAP reporting and disclosure. Mark continues his focus on superior tax service to our clients at McKonly & Asbury.

Education

- B.S. - Accounting, Messiah College
- Certified Public Accountant

Professional & Community Involvement

- Member of the American and Pennsylvania Institutes of Certified Public Accountants
- Member of the Lancaster County Coalition to End Homelessness Leadership Council
- Leadership Lancaster Board Member
- Spent over twenty years as a volunteer firefighter in Dauphin and Lancaster Counties

Awards & Recognitions

- Received Central Penn Business Journal's "Forty Under 40" Award
- Graduate of Leadership Lancaster

To contact Mark Heath:

Email: mheath@macpas.com
Phone: 717.972.5755
Fax: 717.972.7219