

Greg M. Lowe

Partner / Chief Operating Officer

Greg Lowe is a Partner and Chief Operating Officer with McKonly & Asbury, overseeing the operational management of the firm. His team includes Information Technology, Finance, Human Resources, Recruiting, Facilities, and Mergers and Acquisitions. He personally heads up the firm's permanent placement practice, assisting many of the region's top organizations in their search for roles ranging from Staff Accountant to CEO. Greg also has extensive experience in assisting clients to achieve LEAN operations and provides management consulting in numerous operational areas.

Prior to joining McKonly & Asbury, Greg served as President of the IT services division of Intellimark/Technisource, a large national information systems consulting and outsourcing company, with over 600 employees and offices in multiple states. Under his leadership, Intellimark/Technisource provided service to many of the region's most well-known organizations. Prior to joining Intellimark/Technisource, Greg began his career in the packaged foods industry, which is what brought him to the Central PA area, where he lives with his wife Jen and four sons.
