

Elaine R. Nissley, MBA, CISA, PMP, CCSA, CRISC, CRMA Principal

Elaine Nissley is a Principal with McKonly & Asbury. Her primary responsibilities include management of the Internal Audit & Management Consulting Services group. Elaine handles client relationships and is accountable for the delivery of high quality and timely deliverables that meet our clients expectations. The group provides various internal audit and management consulting services based on proven methodologies including: Risk and internal controls assessments; Internal Audit outsourcing/co-sourcing; Information Technology Audits; Data analysis; and Sarbanes-Oxley Section 404 compliance.

Elaine has over twenty years experience in risk management, internal audit, internal controls assessments, and project management.

Education

- B.S. - Computer Science, Pennsylvania State University
- M.B.A. - University of Maryland University College
- Maintains certifications including: Certified Information Systems Auditor; Project Management Professional; Certification in Controls Self-Assessment; Certified in Risk and Information Systems Control; and Certification in Risk Management Assurance

Professional & Community Involvement

- Volunteer instructor for the Institute of Internal Auditors and on the Board of Directors of the Central Penn Chapter
- Frequent speaker on risk management, internal controls, internal audit, and project management topics
- Chair of The Fund for Enhancing Communities Womens Fund Executive Committee

Awards & Recognitions

- Graduate of Leadership Harrisburg Area
- YWCA Women of Excellence Honoree

To contact Elaine Nissley:

Email: enissley@macpas.com
Phone: 717.972.5728
Fax: 717.972.7237