

James P. Shellenberger, CPA Principal

Jim Shellenberger is a Principal with McKonly & Asbury. As a key leader in the firm's Audit and Assurance Segment, he leads many of the firm's core audit and attest engagements, serving clients in a variety of industries, primarily focused on Nonprofit and Affordable Housing organizations.

Jim is a member of the firm's Audit and Accounting Committee and guides the segment's training curriculum and internship program. He provides technical expertise on audit methodology, accounting standards, and the requirements of the Uniform Guidance to the firm, and is a frequent instructor on these and other related technical and leadership topics.

Education

- B.S. - Business Administration Degree, majoring in Accounting, Shippensburg University
- Certified Public Accountant

Professional & Community Involvement

- Member of the American and Pennsylvania Institutes of Certified Public Accountants
- Serves on the statewide Not-For-Profit Committee of the Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants
- Past President and current Board Member of United Cerebral Palsy of Central PA
- Member of the Harrisburg Young Professionals
- Member of the Programs Committee for Leadership Harrisburg Area
- Volunteer with other community organizations including coaching youth sports and is an active member of his church

Awards & Recognitions

- Graduate of Leadership Harrisburg Area Community Leadership Series
- Graduate of The Foundation for Enhancing Communities' Emerging Philanthropist Program

To contact Jim Shellenberger:

Email: jshellenberger@macpas.com
Phone: 717.972.5743
Fax: 717.972.7233